The contest runs from June 11-Aug. 19. A flexible, seven-unit program based on the real-world writing found in newspapers, from editorials and reviews to personal narratives and informational essays.

Following the organization of the main text, this essential resource provides additional out-of-class practice, with four parts to each unit. Français écrit and Français parle contain written and listening activities, respectively, for all three lessons in a unit. Vie pratique offers both written and listening activities based on the practical language section, and Images du monde Francophone provides written and listening activities based on the cultural magazine sections. Revision tests appear after Unites 3, 6, 9, and 11. Important Notice: Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version.

"This is a program that focuses on all 3 modes of communication (interpersonal, presentational, interpretive) and was designed with the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) in mind."--Amazon/Publisher.

Madame et Alice is written by a high school teacher of French along with one of her students who studied five years of French. Dr. Soper, the teacher-author, opens the book by describing her responsibilities along with different teaching techniques for promoting and enhancing student learning. At the end of each chapter Alice, the student co-author, adds a student's perspective to Dr. Soper's teaching techniques. The book concludes with two chapters that depict Dr. Soper's educational and personal philosophies. As a 32-year educator, Dr. Soper incorporates change into her teaching by being the same person.
