The Master of Ceremonies is critical to the success of a function. It may seem to be easy task when you see a good Emcee at work. But, there are many traps for the unwary. The information I give you here will help you to avoid many of them and some of the best ways to deal with them when they can't be avoided. This book focuses on being a good Master of Ceremonies. But, you will find other opportunities being offered to you in related areas when people see the professionalism you show as an Emcee.

A new collection of delightfully macabre tales from a master of horror manga. An old wooden mansion that turns on its inhabitants. A dissection class with a most unusual subject. A funeral where the dead are definitely not laid to rest. Ranging from the terrifying to the comedic, from the erotic to the loathsome, these stories showcase Junji Ito's long-awaited return to the world of horror. -- VIZ Media

Appropriate for a wide range of student abilities. Works for both the middle school and high school students preparing for success in algebra.

John Fletcher Hurst (1834-1903) was a bishop in the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States and first Chancellor of the American University in Washington, D.C. He graduated from Dickinson College in 1854, and in 1856 went to Germany to Study at the University of Halle and the University of Heidelberg. From 1858 to 1866 he was engaged in pastoral work in America, and he filled a five-year appointment as Professor of Systematic Theology at the Martin Mission Institute in Germany. In 1870, he was chosen to teach Historical Theology at Drew Theological Seminary in New Jersey, where he was elected President in 1873, serving until elected to the Episcopacy in 1880. As bishop he was assigned to Iowa. He subsequently served as the first chancellor of the American University in Washington, D.C., where through his work finances were secured and the university first opened. He served as chancellor from 1891 until his death. He wrote History of Rationalism (1865), Martyrs to the Tract Cause: A Contribution to the History of the Reformation (1872), Outlines of Bible History (1873), and Outlines of Church History (1874). He also edited The Wedding Day (1889).
