If you're looking for practical information to answer all your "How?" "What?" and "Why?" questions about money, this book is for you. Dave Ramsey's Complete Guide to Money covers the A to Z of Dave's money teaching, including how to budget, save, dump debt, and invest. You'll also learn all about insurance, mortgage options, marketing, bargain hunting and the most important element of all—giving. This is the handbook of Financial Peace University. If you've already been through Dave's nine-week class, you won't find much new information in this book. This book collects a lot of what he's been teaching in FPU classes for 20 years, so if you've been through class, you've already heard it! It also covers the Baby Steps Dave wrote about in The Total Money Makeover, and trust us—the Baby Steps haven't changed a bit. So if you've already memorized everything Dave's ever said about money, you probably don't need this book. But if you're new to this stuff or just want the all-in-one resource for your bookshelf, this is it!

In Negotiating Rationally, Max Bazerman and Margaret Neale explain how to avoid the pitfalls of irrationality and gain the upper hand in negotiations. For example, managers tend to be overconfident, to recklessly escalate previous commitments, and fail to consider the tactics of the other party. Drawing on their research, the authors show how we are prisoners of our own assumptions. They identify strategies to avoid these pitfalls in negotiating by concentrating on opponents' behavior and developing the ability to recognize individual limitations and biases. They explain how to think rationally about the choice of reaching an agreement versus reaching an impasse. A must read for business professionals.
