fine surprise: two of our "missing" returned. They had been forced to land behind the enemy's line because their motor had stopped. They were hardly down when the "Pisangs" (French peasants) came running toward them from every direction. They managed to get into a nearby woods by beating a hasty retreat.

Behind them they heard the yelling of the men and women. The woods was surrounded, and they had to hide till night fell. Then they escaped into the Argonne Forest, under cover of darkness although fired on a number of times. Here they spent five days, avoiding French troops. As they had only berries and roots to eat, and could only travel at night, they were almost ready to surrender. But on the morning of the seventh day they heard someone say, in German, "Get on the job, you fool." Those were sweet words to them, for it was a scouting party of German Dragoons. Thus, they got back to us.M., SEPTEMBER 10, 1914Yesterday I possible to be stressed far beyond stress. Too many of God's precious people have become victimized by unwanted pressure that accompanies the circumstances in their everyday lives. The dreadful aftermath of stress has claimed the lives of some even to the point of death. That is why, I wrote this book to encourage you in
