"A classic book on the work of the Holy Spirit--and beneficial to anyone who wants a better understanding of it".....Charles Simpson

Joseph Helfgot, the son of Holocaust survivors, worked his way from a Lower East Side tenement to create a successful Hollywood research company. But his heart was failing. After months of waiting for a heart transplant, he died during the operation. Hours after his death, his wife Susan was asked a shocking question: would she donate her husband's face to a total stranger? The stranger was James Maki, the adopted son of parents who spent part of World War II in an internment camp for Japanese Americans. Rebelling against his stern father, a professor, by enlisting to serve in Vietnam, he returned home a broken man, addicted to drugs. One night he fell facedown onto the electrified third rail of a Boston subway track. A young Czech surgeon who was determined to make a better life on the other side of the Iron Curtain was on call when the ambulance brought Maki to the hospital. Although Dr. Bohdan Pomahac gave him little chance of survival, Maki battled back. He was sober and grateful for a second chance, but he became a recluse, a man without a face. His only hope was a controversial face transplant, and Dr. Pomahac made it happen. In The Match, Susan Whitman Helfgot captures decades of drama and history, taking us from Warsaw to Japan, from New York to Hollywood. Through wars and immigration, poverty and persecution, from a medieval cadaver dissection to a stunning seventeen-hour face transplant, she weaves together the story of people forever intertwined—a triumphant legacy of hope.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER □ Read with Jenna Book Club Pick as Featured on Today □ As a young mother facing a terminal diagnosis, Julie Yip-Williams began to write her story, a story like no other. What began as the chronicle of an imminent and early death became something much more—a powerful exhortation to the living. “An exquisitely moving portrait of the daily stuff of life.”—The New York Times Book Review (Editors’ Choice) NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE

YEAR BY The New York Times Book Review □ Time □ Real Simple □ Good Housekeeping That Julie Yip-Williams survived infancy was a miracle. Born blind in Vietnam, she narrowly escaped euthanasia at the hands of her grandmother, only to flee with her family the political upheaval of her country in the late 1970s. Loaded into a rickety boat with three hundred other refugees, Julie made it to Hong Kong and, ultimately, America, where a surgeon at UCLA gave her partial sight. She would go on to become a Harvard-educated lawyer, with a husband, a family, and a life she had once assumed would be impossible. Then, at age thirty-seven, with two little girls at home, Julie was diagnosed with terminal metastatic colon cancer, and a different journey began. The Unwinding of the Miracle is the story of a vigorous life refracted through the prism of imminent death. When she was first diagnosed, Julie Yip-Williams sought clarity and guidance through the experience and, finding none, began to write her way through it—a chronicle that grew beyond her imagining. Motherhood, marriage, the immigrant experience, ambition, love, wanderlust, tennis, fortune-tellers, grief, reincarnation, jealousy, comfort, pain, the marvel of the body in full rebellion—this book is as sprawling and majestic as the life it records. It is inspiring and instructive, delightful and shattering. It is a book of indelible moments, seared deep—an incomparable guide to living vividly by facing hard truths consciously. With humor, bracing honesty, and the cleansing power of well-deployed anger, Julie Yip-Williams set the stage for her lasting legacy and one final miracle: the story of her life. Praise for The Unwinding of the Miracle “Everything worth understanding and holding on to is in this book. . . . A miracle indeed.”—Kelly Corrigan, New York Times bestselling author “A beautifully written, moving, and compassionate chronicle that deserves to be read and absorbed widely.”—Siddhartha Mukherjee, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of The Emperor of All Maladies

This saga unites a family torn apart by the turbulence of the frontier west. Family members and friends are lost then miraculously found in this thrilling, emotional adventure. Share this story with our adventurers and feel their grief and joy as they travel the old west in search of each other. The white boy Levi Junior McCumber was raised by the Blackfeet, abducted by the Sioux and traded to a Cheyenne family. He survived the aftermath of the Battle of the Little Bighorn when the tribes scattered across the northern prairie, then as a teen set out on an odyssey to find his Indian Sister in the brothels of the northwest. His decade long journey took him through numerous white knuckle conflicts from the gold fields of Alaska to the building of the canal at Panama. Wapun, the Sister, liked to introduce herself to a table full of poker players by saying, “Gentlemen I am neither a prostitute nor a lady...”

embroiled in a raging controversy.

Jodi Sampson was a typical girl growing up in a small community by the ocean. She dreamed of falling in love and a life full of good health, great times, and lots of love. Everything seemed to be on track when she married her high school sweetheart. She had some pregnancy troubles, but she hung onto her faith and had two beautiful daughters. But her sense of normalcy vanished when her brother died unexpectedly during her third pregnancy. Despite high levels of stress, she didn't miscarry. She knew from early on, then, that this child, a son she named Michael Francis, was going to be a fighter--a trait that became a double blessing when he was diagnosed with an aggressive brain tumor while still a toddler. Soon, Jodi's own health was threatened, too, but she relied on exercise, nutrition, and family to help her cope. Join Jodi as she proves that never giving up and relying on faith can lead to The Face of a Miracle.

For years, Apostle Frederick K. C. Price wanted nothing more than to serve Jesus fully. Like many, he thought he had received all that God had to give when he accepted Jesus as his Savior and Lord. Still, there was something missing in his life, and he wasn't sure what it was. His search to find that missing ingredient led him to the baptism with the Holy Spirit.

forward to spending Thanksgiving with friends. But when the weather turns deadly, Bud must land his plane in icy conditions outside Green River. Unfortunately, an emergency landing is not the worst of his troubles. As an unexpected event complicates his dilemma, Bud is left struggling for survival as his plane rests in a howling blizzard. Fortunately for Bud, a rescue team soon reaches him and transports him to the hospital. After his father-in-law, Daniel, travels to reach his bedside, Bud has no idea that Daniel is there not just to provide comfort, but to serve as God's emissary. As Daniel unveils secrets he hopes will orchestrate a reunion between Bud and the daughter who mysteriously disappeared years earlier, life comes full circle as Bud opens his heart to receive God's grace, love, and forgiveness. This book is a testament to the power of God's love as a plane lands in a blizzard and brings a lost soul back home again.
