Now with a fresh cover! The nearly 200,000-selling Grace Walk has helped thousands of believers leave behind the "manic-depressive" Christian walk: either running around trying to perform to be acceptable to God—or thinking they've failed Him again and wondering if they'll ever measure up. Living the grace walk gets Christians off this religious roller coaster. Using his own journey from legalism into grace, Steve McVey illustrates the foundational, biblical truths of who believers are in Jesus Christ and how they humbly, he shows how pastors and churches can end up distorting scriptural truths because of their preconceptions. Opening up the Scriptures freshly, Steve examines typical problems such as Leaving out half of the truth: "Becoming a Christian means having your sins forgiven." (We also are made alive!) Using "shorthand" that promotes an unbiblical view: "Our sins are under the blood of Jesus." (Far better, they've been taken away!) Confusing our role with God's: "Salvation is giving your life to Christ." (More important, He gives His life to us!) Readers will see that God's undiluted truth is always best...and brings a fulfilling, close relationship with Him.

God's purpose in the life of a believer is to show His grace to the world, yet most Christians gauge their spiritual success by how well they adhere to the rules of the Christian life. Based on Steve McVey's Grace Walk, this handbook leads the reader out of the legalistic woods into the daylight of God's grace. Readers will learn the differences between -- -- legalism and liberty -- -- trying and trusting -- -- walking in the flesh and only God's grace can give.

Are you "living by the rules," or are you letting God's grace rule you?
There's a big difference between the two. If you're living for God--living by the rules--you'll always be exhausted. You'll feel that you're not doing enough for God and that if you don't "measure up," He will be displeased with you. But God never meant for the Christian life to be that way! His Love for us isn't making choices about the kinds of lives they will lead, they are bombarded with conflicting messages about what it means to be a woman. The media says one thing, boys say another, and friends seem obsessed with whatever is newest and coolest. As a result, girls too often hand their decisions over to those least qualified to make them. Into the breach steps Elizabeth George, bestselling author and beloved Bible teacher. With wisdom, gentleness, and tremendous grace, she guides tween girls ages 8 to 12 through the most challenging decisions they face, hunger to get free of performance-focused Christianity and rediscover the grace-filled, relational God of the Scriptures. The issue of God's will confuses and frustrates many believers. Steve McVey helps and encourages them with key biblical principles:

Focusing on rules, Christians end up anxious, hesitant, and distant from their compassionate Father.

Focusing on God's relationship with them, Christians will feel assured He is a Person to trust, not a formula to figure out.

Believers can relax, knowing that God wants to guide them and has given them the life
