Why should you be a friend to trees? Trees are a valuable natural resource. People depend on trees for food, and animals depend on trees for food and shelter. But most important, we depend on trees because they add oxygen, a gas we all need, to the air. While trees give us many wonderful products, we must also protect them because we can't live without them.

In the Trilogos Beacon series, author Linda Vera Roethlisberger takes a nuanced look at individual aspects of the core competencies of being human. In this second booklet of our series »TRILOGOS Wegweiser« the author gives us an insight of: - What exactly is intuition? - Where and why do I need intuition in my everyday life? - How do I live intuition? This booklet offers some explanations and thoughts on these topics as well as exercises that might prove helpful.
