TALK LESS. Kids start to ignore parents because they speak so often and sometime throw around empty threats of repercussions. Be more conscious of what you are attempting to relay to your children and make sure that every single word counts. The more you request for your child to comply, the less likely your child will respond and follow through.

Here are my 20 top tips for improving the WAY we talk to our kids: Use your child's name. Your own name is music to your ears. Our kids are no different, and it helps to get their attention before delivering your message. Eg., "George, please go and get" Young children can often only concentrate on one thing at a time.
