You've finally finished your personal statement and it's perfect! There's just one thing to consider before hitting the "send" button - will it meet the admission team's expectations? How will you know? CASPA guidelines are vague - "Write a brief statement expressing your motivation or desire to become a physician assistant." School websites aren't generally more helpful. Do they want to hear that you've dreamed of becoming a PA since you were five and loved your toy stethoscope? Are they interested in your volunteer work at a homeless shelter? Will it help that you've been a science nerd since 9th grade Biology? How should you tell your story? Should it read like a textbook, a novel or something in between? The fact is there hasn't been much guidance. Until now. Admissions directors and faculty from PA programs across the country have shared their thoughts on personal statements - what they hope to see, what they wish they'd never see, and tips to make an essay shine. When compiling this book, we realized that access to insider information is just the first step to writing a winning personal statement. That's why we teach you everything you need to know about essay writing, from form to finesse, with step-by-step tips and examples. This is your all-in-one guide to writing the ideal personal statement for Physician Assistant programs anywhere in the country.

Write Yourself is the ideal introduction to how to facilitate groups and individuals in finding inspiration for their creative personal writing voices. This book explains how and why writing is such an illuminating and cathartic process, and provides many practical exercises that encourage the exploration of emotions, memories and experiences.

Pieces of the Frame is a gathering of memorable writings by one of the greatest journalists and storytellers of our time. They take the reader from the backwoods roads of Georgia, to the high altitude of Ruidoso Downs in New Mexico; from the social decay of Atlantic City, to Scotland, where a pilgrimage for art's sake leads to a surprising encounter with history on a hilltop with a view of a fifth of the entire country. McPhee's writing is more than informative; these are stories, artful and full of character, that make compelling reading. They play with and against one another, so that Pieces of the Frame is distinguished as much by its unity as by its variety. Subjects familiar to McPhee's readers-sports, Scotland, conservation-are treated here with intimacy and a sense of the writer at work.

How to Write a Personal Statement will revolutionise the way you think about your university application. Written in collaboration with teachers, private tutors, and Cambridge University admissions staff, this book provides the ultimate guide to mastering your university personal statement. Our simple yet highly effective personal statement template, the 'five step formula', will ensure you achieve your highest potential in your UCAS application. Whilst this book concentrates on the UCAS personal statement and UK university applications, the formula will be equally as effective when applying for most US and other international universities. Personal Statement Examples The most unique aspect of this book is the way in which it presents real personal statement examples. The example personal statements presented here allowed the students that wrote them to achieve offers from some of the world's best universities, including Cambridge, UCL, and LSE. However, this does not simply present example statements, but it critically analyses them, showing exactly what each student did well, and what each student failed to do. Through the combination of personal statement structure and real student examples, we believe this book offers a quick and easy guide to personal statement writing. Personal Statement Template The '5 Step Formula' template in this book is based around the 5 paragraphs every personal statement should have in order to be successful. Each of these paragraphs is covered in a different chapter of the book, with chapter 9 offering a summary of the '5 Step Formula' to ensure you are using the best personal statement structure. About the Author Jonty Purvis is a Cambridge University graduate, bestselling education author, and full-time private tutor. After working with students for many years, he established a very simple personal statement structure that saw his students achieve offers from top universities every single time. This is a practical—and encouraging—how-to book from a long-time teacher of personal and family history writing. Katie Funk Wiebe helps beginning memoir writers get started collecting the stories of their lives. She gives hints for recalling distant memories and tracking down family heirlooms. This is a serious but accessible resource for undertaking your personal or family history writing. In these pages, you'll find: Tips on writing. Exercises to prod the memory. And advice on looking at the broad scope of a well-lived life. As Wiebe writes, "You've been living 24 hours every day, making decisions, objecting to certain ideas, endorsing others, and interacting with family and coworkers," the author writes. "I plan to convince you that if you took time to reflect, you'd find lots of meaningful stuff going on."

Declaration Upon publication, I hereby pledge to donate 10% of the earnings from each book to a charity supporting education access for underprivileged students.
