Rock star drummer Bishop Riley just needs a few months to relax and detox before his band ’ s next tour. But the last place he expected to do it is in Seldon, Alaska. And the last person he wants to do it with is Penny Jones. Fiery, headstrong Penny has zero in common with the cocky, too-hot-for-his-own-good Bishop, and she ’ d like to keep it that way. But the more Bishop gets under her skin, the more she wants to let him in. And the more Penny lets him see, the more Bishop wants to know this stubborn girl with the killer body and soulful eyes. The simmering heat between them won ’ t go away, no matter how hard either of them tries. Their time together in Alaska may be running out—but so is their resolve for not taking a chance on love.

Bishop Riley, a drummer in a popular rock band, is put under house arrest for drug use in Seldon, Alaska, where he tries to fight his habit and falls in love with Penny Jones, a hockey player.

With the last girl he would expect... Totally not in his game plan. Suddenly, Sebastian finds himself muddled in the game he's always prided himself on. He can't even pick up girls at parties anymore! Why would anyone want to be in love when it turns you into a stuttering, screwed-up, mess with really lame stalker tendencies? Stalking? He's always known how to give a girl what she wants and now it's time to figure out what a boy wants... and he definitely plans on getting it. A companion novel to What a Boy Needs.
