"THE MOON BY WHALE LIGHT: And Other Adventures Among Bats ...

MOON BY WHALE LIGHT. A unique blend of poetic essays and scientific descriptions of endangered animals and the natural world. Ackerman writes with the precision of a scientist and the soul of a romantic, luring readers with provocative word pictures while educating them on the importance of such animals in the global scheme of nature. She maintains that near-perfect balance of animal lore, objective study, and conservation, and includes some downright hair-raising adventures.

Diane Ackerman's lusciously written grand tour of the realm of the senses includes conversations with an iceberg in Antarctica and a professional nose in New York, along with dissertations on kisses and tattoos, sadistic cuisine and the music played by the planet Earth. "Delightful . . . gives the reader the richest possible feeling of the worlds the senses take in." —The New York Times

The author of the best-selling A Natural History of the Senses explores the diverse faces and forms of love from a scientific, psychological, and philosophical perspective. Reprint. 50,000 first printing.

A young whale falls in love with the moon. On her quest for love, she reaches the most remote corner of earth, the Arctic. In those cold waters, she finds herself alone and disappointed about not finding the moon after so much effort. She meets a couple of wise narwhals who teach her that relationships are complicated, and sometimes they do not end up the way we want. The wise narwhals showed the whale how to find her way back home using the stars as a guide; they also took her on a marvellous journey through night sky mythology.

With A Natural History of the Senses, Diane Ackerman let her free-ranging intellect loose on the natural world. Now in Deep Play she tackles the realm of creativity, by exploring one of the most essential aspects of our characters: the ability to play. "Deep play" is that more intensified form of play that puts us in a rapturous mood and awakens the most creative, sentient, and joyful aspects of our inner selves. As Ackerman ranges over a panoply of artistic, spiritual, and athletic activities, from spiritual rapture through extreme sports, we gain a greater sense of what it means to be "in the moment" and totally, transcendently human. Keenly perceived and written with poetic exuberance, Deep Play enlightens us by revealing the manifold ways we can enhance our lives.

Every family has its secrets, but Clara ' s family secret is, frankly, unbelievable... Clara doesn ' t think she ' s special, until she starts having terrifying nightmares and hearing voices in the night. Then her great aunt Selina tells Clara something incredible. Clara is a shape-shifter. But with this extraordinary, inherited gift comes a dangerous curse. Clara thinks Selina is crazy and dismisses her great aunt ' s warnings. But no matter how hard she tries, the curse cannot be escaped. Will Clara accept her fate and learn to control her new powers? Will she overcome the threat caused by the curse, to her friendships, her sanity and, ultimately, her life? ' Under the Light of a Full Moon ' is D.A. McGrath ' s first book in the ' Full Moon ' series. Introducing a captivating new hero in a thrilling fantasy adventure.

The author gets to see bats close up as she accompanies bat expert and founder of Bat Conservation International, Merlin Tuttle, on a trip to study these often misunderstood mammals.
