Laura Sobiech tells the amazing story of how God used her son ' s battle with cancer to touch the lives of millions. " Okay, Lord, you can have him. But if he must die, I want it to be for something big. I want someone ' s life to be changed forever. " This is what Laura Sobeich prayed when she found out her seventeen-year-old son had only one year to live. With this desperate prayer, she released her son to God ' s will. At that point, Zach Sobiech was just another teenager battling cancer. When his mother told him to think about writing good-bye letters to family and friends, he decided instead to write songs. One of them, " Clouds, " captured hearts and changed not one life but millions, making him an international sensation. But Zach ' s story is not just about music. It ' s a testament to what can happen when you live as if each day might be your last. It ' s a story about the human spirit. It ' s about how God used a dying boy from a small town in Minnesota to touch the hearts of millions—including top executives in the music industry, major music artists, news anchors, talk show hosts, actors, priests and pastors, and school children across the globe. Zach once said, " I want to be known as the kid who went down fighting, and didn ' t really lose. " Fly a Little Higher is about how God used Zach to do something big.

Various family members try to keep Zack out of trouble as he grows from an infant to a school child.

Two dollars of every purchase will be donated to Zach Speaks, which provides financial support for families with autism!Meet a very special bear named Zach, who has autism. He may act and think a little differently, but in many ways, he is just like you! Christi and Jeff Hurtak have always been thankful for both the blessings and lessons God's grace has provided them over the past thirty years. They believe that it is within both the blessings and lessons of life that faith is found, practiced, and strengthened. Nothing could have prepared them for the awesome blessing of grandchildren, and most certainly not life-changing lessons that continued with the gift of a grandchild with autism. Their oldest grandson, Zachary, was diagnosed with autism at the age of two. Since then, they have learned the true meaning of walking by faith and not by sight. Please join the Hurtaks on their real-life journey with Zachary depicted in this book series as "Zach Bear". Come along with Zach as he navigates though his own Zany Adventures, and not only faces and overcomes some of his personal struggles, but provides encouragement, and inspires hope in the lives of others along the way.

Originally published as Fly a Little Higher and now updated and revised to coincide with the film release of Clouds, Laura Sobiech tells the amazing, true story behind the song and the movie. " Okay, Lord, you can have him. But if he must die, I want it to be for something big. I want someone ' s life to be changed forever. " This is what Laura Sobiech prayed when she found out her seventeen-year-old son had only one year to live. With this desperate prayer, she released her son to God ' s will. At that point, Zach Sobiech was just another teenager battling cancer. When his mother told him to think about writing goodbye letters to family and friends, he decided instead to write songs. One of them, " Clouds, " captured hearts and changed lives, making him an international sensation. This story is a testament to what can happen when you live as if each day might be your last. It ' s a story about the human spirit. It shows how God used a dying boy from a small town in Minnesota to touch the hearts of millions—including top executives in the entertainment industry, major music artists, news anchors, actors, priests and pastors, and schoolchildren across the globe. And above all, it ' s an example of the amazing things that happen when someone shares the most precious thing he has—himself. " I ' m not a musician; I ' m just a filmmaker, and my prayer is that you get an opportunity—both through the reading of this beautiful book and the watching of our film based on it—to experience what I will fail to put into words: the magic and inspiration of Zachary David Sobiech. " —Justin Baldoni, filmmaker and director of Clouds

Of all the children that ever could be, You are the one made just for me. From a child's first uttered "Dada" to his or her first unsteady steps, nothing can adequately convey the joy and awe of watching the birth and growth of a new child. Now releasing as a board book filled with adorable illustrations and the refrain, "You are the one made just for me," Made for Me is a winning presentation of tender moments that tie a father and his new child together—forever.

Zach and his family go to the beach, but Zach is having a lousy day. First, he dropped his toothbrush in the toilet. Then his best friend went to someone else ' s birthday party instead of joining him. But most frustrating of all, he can ' t get his kite to fly! Zach kicks sand, yells angry words, and asks his dad if they can just go home now. Instead, his dad teaches him a simple, three-step approach to get a handle on frustration and find a way to enjoy himself even when things aren ' t going his way: 1) name it (why are you frustrated?); 2) tame it (self-regulation exercises such as deep breathing or visualization); 3) reframe it (change your thoughts to change your feelings). The three-point strategy is presented as the three corners of a triangle and is illustrated as the corners of Zach ' s kite. Easy to understand and easy to remember. Zach Rules Series Zach struggles with social issues like getting along, handling frustrations, making mistakes, and other everyday problems typical of young kids. Each book in the Zach Rules series presents a single, simple storyline involving one such problem. As each story develops, Zach and readers learn straightforward tools for coping with their struggles and building stronger relationships now and in the future.
